Introduction

Kyeema Foundation (KYEEMA) is a non-governmental organisation that works predominantly to reach poorer members of communities in developing countries. KYEEMA is committed to the protection of children and this Child Protection Policy builds upon the core values of KYEEMA as described in the Constitution and Code of Conduct. Both documents show our respect for the individual in all aspects of our work.

Purpose

This policy provides the framework for minimising and managing the risk of abuse to children in the delivery of KYEEMA's activities. This policy, the Procedures (Attachment 1) and the guidelines in Attachments 2 to 5 are used to develop operational procedures and monitoring systems specific to each project to evaluate and manage high risk activities for Child Protection.

Guiding Principles

This policy is based on the following ethical principles for child protection.

- KYEEMA believes all children have a right to be safe and therefore KYEEMA has an obligation to try to ensure the safety of children associated with its projects.
- KYEEMA believes any form of child abuse (including accessing or possessing child pornography) is unacceptable and maintains a zero tolerance approach towards it.
- KYEEMA takes proactive steps to minimise the risks of harm toward children.

Scope

This policy, the attached procedure and guidelines apply to all KYEEMA Directors, Board Members, staff, consultants and sub-contractors, volunteers, partners and observers/visitors accompanying a KYEEMA activity. They do not replace any laws relating to child protection activities.

Definitions

For the purposes of this policy

Child: KYEEMA adopts DFAT's definition of a child as any person under the age of 18 years.

Child Abuse: includes physical, sexual, emotional, neglect, bullying, child labour, and exposure to domestic violence.

Child exploitation: One or more of the following:

- committing or coercing another person to commit an act or acts of abuse against a child

- possessing, controlling, producing, distributing, obtaining or transmitting child exploitation material
- committing or coercing another person to commit an act or acts of grooming or online grooming
- using a minor for profit, labour, sexual gratification, or some other personal or financial advantage

Child exploitation material: Material, irrespective of its form, which is classified as child abuse material or child pornography material

Child Protection: An activity or initiative designed to protect children from any form of harm, particularly that arising from child exploitation and abuse

Contact with children: Working on an activity or in a position that involves or may involve contact with children, either under the position description or due to the nature of the work environment (also see Working with children definition).

Grooming: Behaviour that makes it easier for an offender to procure a child for sexual activity.

Harm: Any detrimental effect on a child's physical, psychological or emotional wellbeing. Harm may be caused by financial, physical or emotional abuse, neglect, and/or sexual abuse or exploitation whether intended or unintended

Informed consent: Ensures the child and the parent or guardian understand the implications, purpose and potential uses of photographs or videos

Neglect: the persistent failure or deliberate denial to provide a child with the necessities of life where the caregiver is in a position to be able to provide such.

Staff: all KYEEMA fulltime employees, fixed term employees, consultants, and sub- contracted individuals.

Working with children: being engaged in an activity with a child where the contact would reasonably be expected as a normal part of the activity and the contact is not incidental to the activity. Working includes volunteering or other unpaid works

Policy statement

- KYEEMA considers the integrity and value of the individual to be paramount and as such is committed to the safety and protection of all children we encounter in our work.
- KYEEMA believes that all children have the right to be free from violence, abuse and exploitation of any kind.
- Because they are among the most vulnerable members of the communities in which we work, children deserve the protection of organisations which have the ability to impact upon their welfare.

The procedure and guidelines for implementation of this policy are detailed in Attachment 1 – 5.

Responsibilities

Adherence to this policy, the procedure and operational guidelines is mandatory for all staff and partners engaged by KYEEMA. Opportunities will be provided for KYEEMA personnel to participate in Child Protection training.

The CEO in consultation with the KYEEMA Board, is responsible for the implementation of this policy and for advising on the need to review or revise this policy as and when the need arises.

Where issues related to compliance to this policy are identified, the CEO will work with staff and other relevant stakeholders to address these issues promptly. The policy will be reviewed every three years and revised as needed, with the approval of the Board.

Attachment 1. Procedures

Child Protection Risk Management

KYEEMA recognises that there are potential risks to children arising from the management of our projects. KYEEMA will assess whether there are any risks to children prior to implementing a new project and where such risks are identified, will proactively manage those risks (Attachment 2).

Code of Conduct

KYEEMA's Code of Conduct outlines ethical standards and acceptable behaviour that must be adhered to by all KYEEMA Directors, Board Members, staff, consultants, volunteers and partners. Breaching the Code of Conduct is considered a serious offence and carries with it disciplinary action, including possible termination, and if criminal activity is suspected, reporting to the relevant authorities.

KYEEMA also has a separate Child Protection Code of Conduct. All KYEEMA Directors, Board Members, staff, consultants and sub-contractors, volunteers and partners are required to sign the specific Child Protection Code of Conduct at Attachment 6.

Training

All new and current KYEEMA staff will receive training on child protection issues, policy enforcement, and project child protection operational procedures. Training for all new KYEEMA staff will be included in pre-mobilisation briefings. KYEEMA staff will be expected to brief sub-contractors and grantees when negotiating sub-agreements.

Use of Children's Images

When photographing or filming children for work related purposes KYEEMA will always protect the privacy of the child and will always be aware of how images of children might be adapted or viewed. Guidelines on Use of Children's Images are given in Attachment 5.

Recruitment and Selection Process of Staff Working with Children

KYEEMA will implement recruitment practices (Attachment 3) that minimise the risk of engaging staff who may pose a risk to children. These procedures will be designed to deter potential abusers and to recruit the most suitable people to work with children.

Reporting and Grievance Redress Process

It is mandatory for all KYEEMA staff, consultants and partners to report any concerns or allegations of child abuse they become aware of. KYEEMA will take all such reports seriously and will follow the project-specific operational procedures accordingly to manage reports and redress grievances (Attachment 4). All parties will be treated fairly and the principles of natural justice will be adhered to.

Malicious or deliberately false allegations will be taken very seriously, and the person may face disciplinary action.

Attachment 2 Child Protection Risk Evaluation Guidelines

Factors which present a high risk to child safety and protection include:

- Children who
 - Are very young
 - Have been abandoned, orphaned or otherwise without a carer
 - Have a disability
 - Have been displaced
 - Have experienced conflict or have been abused
- Staff who
 - Have not been screened carefully, including police checks
 - Are not supervised adequately
- Locations which are
 - Isolated, secluded or otherwise difficult to access
 - Experiencing political unrest or threats to security
 - Overcrowded
 - Home based
- One to one interaction
 - Physical contact
 - Unsupervised visitors
 - Staff working alone

Attachment 3 Recruitment and Selection Guidelines for Personnel in Contact with or Working with Children

- Interviews will be conducted for all positions, preferably face to face.
- All interviewees will be required to provide proof of identity – photo ID is required such as passport or current driver’s licence.
- Applicants will be asked to disclose whether they have been charged with child exploitation offences.
- Criminal record checks and verbal referee checks will be conducted on selected personnel before engagement.
- All interviewees are provided a copy of KYEEMA’s Code of Conduct, and its contents and principles are explained, including the section on child protection.
- All successful candidates are required to read and sign a copy of this Child Protection Policy and Child Protection Code of Conduct (Attachment 6).
- For any position that is working directly with children, the following applies to all interviewees/preferred candidates:
 - A thorough background check will be conducted including a detailed history of employment and education, including durations and locations, to determine that they possess relevant qualifications and experience working with children and to identify and query any unexplained patterns or gaps.
 - Police checks will be carried out (where available), covering a five year history, and obtained from any country in which the interviewee resided for more than 12 months over that period, plus their place of citizenship.
 - At least two reference checks will be obtained, including one from the interviewee’s most recent employer. All references must be obtained by speaking directly with the referee; written references will be considered inadequate.
 - The interviewee will be asked behavioural questions to determine their motivation for working with children, their attitudes towards children and their understanding of the professional boundaries.
 - Assessment with respect to child protection will continue to take place throughout the course of a successful applicant’s employment at the time of performance assessment.

Attachment 4 Reporting and Grievance Redress Guidelines

These guidelines have been developed to inform all staff of their legal and moral responsibilities with regard to suspected child abuse that is in any way connected with one of KYEEMA's projects.

Any disclosure or allegation made by a child or staff member/consultant regarding the safety or possible abuse of a child must be reported. A staff member/consultant is also obliged to report any incidents or behaviour they may witness that could be interpreted as child abuse or give rise to concerns over the welfare or safety of the child(ren) involved, including observing another staff member accessing child pornography. The report should be made immediately, and where this is not possible, it should be made as soon as reasonably practicable.

Each project must have its own reporting and grievance redress procedure that abide by the laws of the country in which the project is operating. For example, if there is a local child protection authority any allegations should be reported to that body. If the matter is able to be dealt with as a criminal offence it should be reported to local police. In the absence of either of these, the matter must be dealt with under the Code of Conduct.

Each project's reporting and grievance redress procedure will take into account the following issues:

- The treatment the child may receive from local authorities e.g. will the child be victimised?
- Who and how will long term support be provided to the child?
- Will the child be ostracised by their community or family?
- How will the local authorities deal with the alleged perpetrator e.g. death penalty, corrupt justice systems?
- Impact on KYEEMA and the project's reputation.
- Managing the media.

None of the above are reasons to avoid reporting child abuse, but they must be managed appropriately.

Actions that must always be taken include:

- Protecting the child from further abuse e.g. relocating them to a safe place where they are away from the immediate danger.
- Distancing the alleged perpetrator e.g. where the alleged perpetrator is a member of staff, have the individual placed on leave with full pay until resolution of the matter.
- Keeping the matter as confidential as possible where the relevant people are informed on a need- to-know basis only.

Attachment 5 Guidelines on Use of Children's Images

All Images of children used by KYEEMA on its website, in its brochures and other marketing material must be respectful, appropriate and display children in a positive way.

The consent of the parent/guardian of the child (or of the child if no parent or guardian exists) must be sought at the time of recording an image of a child. The consent obtained must be informed consent; therefore how and where the image will be used must be explained.

The identity of the children captured in images must be protected at all times. KYEEMA will not publish any identifying information or the location of the child when it publishes these images; nor will file labels of any photos reveal any identifying information if they are being sent electronically.

KYEEMA will always endeavour to comply with the local traditions or restrictions of reproducing personal images.

All images must be honest representations of the context and the facts.
