

Impact by Numbers

27

projects

19

countries

12,028

people reached directly

93,556

population reached

52,728 people supported to improve their nutrition, health and livelihoods	602 population with reduced risk of high burden disease & antimicrobial resistance (AMR)
40 people who received improved health services (for infectious disease)	50,614 small-scale farmers with improved incomes & livelihoods
52,067 people with improved local access to nutrient-dense food	170 people who have benefited from financial and/or business development support to local small or medium-sized enterprises
300 people engaged in regenerative local practices that reduce vulnerability to climate change	182 people involved in participatory processes involving community planning using traditional knowledge and systems
52,728 people supported to build community resilience	200 people with access to supply of fresh water to address water scarcity
326 people who participated in the development, adoption and/or implementation of local disaster risk reduction strategies or climate change plans	756 people supported to have sustainable housing and local employment
562 people reached with livelihoods support interventions	3,487 people who received assistance due to a climate-related or human-related disaster

2,191 people with increased participation in technologies for equitable social impact	2,059 people with increased access to information and communications technology
257 locally owned & managed projects, businesses, & technologies supported	214 businesses supported to grow
132 people in developing countries supported in domestic technology development, research and innovation	11 initiatives scaled off successful innovations for use by other communities in comparable local contexts
21 public, public-private and civil society partnerships, building on the experience and resourcing strategies of partnerships data, monitoring and accountability

8,332 women and girls directly supported through our programs	280 women supported to assume leadership roles	4 Disabled Persons Organisations actively involved with the project
40,035 people who participated in sessions on prevention, reduction and response to violence, abuse and exploitation of children	116 people who received disability support services specific to their needs	732 girls are supported to attend school and get an education
1,556 people trained in disability awareness and inclusion	30 people who participated in sessions on gender issues and women's equal rights	192 women survivors of violence receiving support and services

Funded through our corporate partner across three fund programs:

- Humanitarian Relief Fund
- Our Communities Fund
- Challenge Fund

Palladium MAKE IT POSSIBLE

19 projects	16 countries	5,888 people reached directly	42,719 population reached	361,538 AUD funds spent
--------------------	---------------------	--------------------------------------	----------------------------------	--------------------------------

1,864 people supported to improve their nutrition, health and livelihoods	168 people directly engaged to reduce risk of childhood stunting/malnutrition	1,664 people with improved local access to nutrient-dense food	200 people with reduced risk of high burden disease & antimicrobial resistance
135 small-scale farmers with improved incomes & livelihoods	45,740 people supported to build community resilience	756 people supported to have sustainable housing and local employment	3,470 people who received assistance due to a climate-related or human-related disaster
300 people engaged in regenerative local practices that reduce vulnerability to climate change	40,000 people who received mental health and psychosocial support	562 people reached with livelihoods support interventions	175 people involved in participatory processes involving community planning using traditional knowledge and systems
45 locally owned & managed projects, businesses, & technologies supported	48 businesses supported to grow	7 initiatives scaled off successful innovations for use by other communities in comparable local contexts	2,051 people with increased access to information and communications technology
17 public, public-private and civil society partnerships, building on the experience and resourcing strategies of partnerships data, monitoring and accountability	1,996 women and girls directly supported through projects	82 women supported to assume leadership roles
40,019 people supported through activities focused on prevention, reduction and response to violence, abuse and exploitation of children	116 people who received disability support services specific to their needs	1,556 people trained in disability awareness and inclusion	732 girls are supported to attend school and get an education

2022-23

KYEEMA FOUNDATION